The NY Daily News and New York Post needs to control their Rogue Pay-per writers. Here's one example;

Michael Foster (Picture attach) Carolina Gildred his x-Lover and the wife of Tom Gildred. Tom Gildred's claim of a net wealth of 150 Million a known San Diego Businessman, CEO and founder for multiple corporations and member to multiple associated boards of organizations across the city of San Diego Ca. A 2012 Ranho Sante Fe's Ernst and Young awardee at 56 years of age he is the youngest of the Gildreds of San Diego a name which holds roots throughout the history of San Diego. (at least this is what's in the news and on the internet).

What is not on the internet is merely the truth of a troubled affair Tom Gildred and his wife Carolina Gildred have been trying to cover up for the past 2 years and 6-months.

Michael Foster is the Dance Tango Instructor from New York City. Rogue Journalist who are prone to adapt to Dramatic Scripting best describe as news feeds fit for the INQUIRER. These are news PAY-PER writers and not Journalist who's interest is base on honest, true and unbiased reporting. The Gildreds of San Diego's manipulation of News Media for Pay Per write ups did not start with Rex Brown or Julia K Marsh of the New York Post and NY Daily News - The family for decades have appeared in multiple write ups throughout San Diego and with only a little careful eye of observation it was not difficult to compiled a list of mostly one sided stories most of which usually flamboyantly up play and over play the Gildreds on a whole.

The Gildreds in essence are a Spotless San Diego family name or at least so are the reports from most of what is available to the public. However Tom Gildred and Wife of Mexican Born Carolina Hernandez, Garcia (of a first marriage) Gildred and mother of 2 Teen DACA kids have taken a much more benign manner towards protecting his public status. Tom and Carolina Gildred's claims of a man otherwise the tango dance instructor from New York have drummed up a vast conspiracy that Tom's Wife Carolina Gildred and himself (the tango dance instructor) have had an ongoing affair throughout a period which included up to 3 consecutive trips to New York City between February to June of 2016 by Wife Carolina Gildred in which the last trip she even had a picnic in the park before flying back to San Diego. She then concocted a scenario in which to convince Michael Foster the Dance Tango Instructor to continue with their romantic rendezvous by coming up with either one or all of the following options:
 Plans on becoming a Professional Dance Partner with Dance Instructor Michael Foster
 Plans on investing into Michael Foster's Technique and Balance Dance Programs (A series of 7 dance programs already established see reports Newsday, amNY and NYTimes).
 Plans to create or convert one of her husband's room's into a virtual Dance Studio for remote dance instruction via satellite.
 The least of which plans have had anything to do with coming to San Diego to teach mss Carolina Gildred and a group of her friends a theory which only fell into place at the final stage of her plans.

After the SCAM fell through on August ending 2016 and while Michael Foster the Tango Dance Partner, Lover, Instructor, Friend and soon to be associate business partner was on his way back to NYC, on an executive flight, flying first class c/o Carolina Gildred, Tom and the Gildred Family confronted her and thwarted Carolina's ideas of an interim separation and eventual divorce of newly wed husband Tom Gildred. What would you do as a wife with two DACA kids, a poor mother and brother on allowance in Cancun Mexico and no where to turn or too go to? That was the easy part - Carolina reported following these series of confrontation that it got to as far as having her mother knocked over and hospitalized only from a normal walk in the streets of Cancun Mexico. Could she be lying when she said this to then Lover Michael tango Foster when he was bedridden with worry for her safety while in New York a day or two after their last steamy sexual encounters at the La Jolla Marriott Marquee? Or was this only the beginning of the new plans orchestrated by force or choice between herself and to ease the life threatening confrontations from the Gildred Family.

I am mentioning the Gildred Family because Carolina have often described the hate she felt from both of Tom's sisters and a state of nonacceptance from Tom Gildred's Mother a statement to the extent - You're (refereeing to her as daughter in-law) not fit for the Gildred's crop stock or future Gildred siblings.

In Carolina Gildred's own words her statements reads: "Michael he stripe me of all my credit cards and the only thing that I have is the old amex card from NYC. She was essentially BROKE. At which time I remembers succinctly saying to her - Carolina? Pick up the pieces and Come Home. (This was before her report of her mother being hospitalized from an absurdly anonymous attack which was not a robbery).

Tom Gildred and his family THE GILDRED's of San Diego continued with their side of what they eventually drummed up as statements in their New York Supreme Court Lawsuit Carolina (an Individual) Gildred vs Michael Foster etc., in which they've completely outdid themselves with lies, half truths and concocted false reports. In one statement the lawsuit describes Michael Foster the x-lover as a Dangerous Case Of Erotomania - a mental disease known for maniacs who lust at tv celebrities and even got Carolina's New York's husband Dr. Manuel Orlando Garcia to doctor a letter statement worthy of taking it to the authorities in New York and California in reports the Gildred's stated that they fear for their lives, that the lover threaten to teach her a lesson., etc., etc., etc.

More so in the very filing of the Lawsuit the framing of the documents forgot to include a physical address for the defendant. Not even the NY Daily News or the New York Post editors or writers Julia K Marsh and Mr. Rex Brown found this data in all eventuality somewhat meandering. Instead Both News Media run almost a full scripted page announcing Michael Foster, very much confirming all of the Gildred's of San Diego allegation as truth.

The News painted the x-lover as a MAD MAN and significantly prep up a photo consistent what what he'd perhaps need to look like if he'd actually had begotten insane. The news even added a caveat a perhaps small misprint by suggesting the x-lover to be years older than Tom Gildred.

Noted: the Gildred's of San Diego are famed lovers of Drama, the arts and are embolden in a vast arrears of public foundations for the arts and even dub himself as a philanthropists of many achieves in human and natural philosophies. The Gildred's love for son Tom Gildred even assert he'd need to TRADEMARK his name. "When people think of him - They think of him as a Service". The USPTO have denied Tom's application. He is contesting their denial in an appeal latest 2017.

Michael Foster is no saint - for sure it not worth it for anyone to suffer this much only for suggesting he's willing to move ahead but would not deny the facts of the love affair between himself and the wife of Tom Gildred.

This may have been the needle that broke the camel's back.

The New's Media and its Rogue reporters surely needs to take some blame - even if it is not a Pay Per Report which in too many instances of the REPORT it's became clear that some underlying intent is more than obvious on each of Daily News Julia K. Marsh and NY Post Rex Brown's infectious written reports.

Many attempts have been made to both News agencies in which I've requested to please remove the obvious errors, state where the photo of Michael Foster was captured or remove it and issue a written apology for statements alluding to age difference.

The pay pers have not given any response to this day.

I am appealing to other news agency to intervene by helping me to clear my name by linking my websites: The websites TomGildred.info and CarolinaGildred.com and Emeraldtextiles.info Contrary to the Gildred's Lawsuit claims of these websites created as blogs to defame the Gildred's of San Diego nothing else could be further from the Truth., The websites was a concoction of wife Carolina Gildred in her own supposed to have been deffense if her goals were met in contest of leaving or divorcing Tom Gildred. What was not taken into considerations is the FACT of the GILDRED's as a family attacking herself, her poor mexican family all the way in Mexico and the livelihood course of two cherished DACA kids.

It all worked out - seemingly so far., or did it? Carolina may be living a happy Mss Gildred minus an x-lover and Dancing the Tango, two DACA kids are not in the DARK anymore and Mother, brother, brothers wife and kids are also happily living and working in NY/NJ. All one big happy family.

The only thing that's hanging a bit in limbo is an upcoming lawsuit in the New York Supreme Court on November the 21st.

And if ever the case were to transpire it won't be anytime soon or at loosely before sometime early 2019.

In the meantime the Tango x-Lover's life and gender continues to be ablated for that which the New York Post and Daily News Have reported. #PLEASSETAKEDOWN

Sincerely'

Michael Foster

Dear daily news,

I was on the phone with you not too long ago - In a discussion I made reference to the attach document. In an article of the Daily News Dated April, 19th 2017 Daily News Writer Mr. Brown and colleague Ms Marsh reported on an article in which falsely stated Michael Foster's Age and (see attach) included a photo gone viral of an obviously tampered-up image. As an avid reader of the NYDaily News I honestly hope your editorial can assist with damage protection. ReEdit the article, Review the article, Rewrite the article in a less flamboyantly played up way basically the article was too one sided and lack consistency in simple fact finding.

i.e: knowing the Tom Gildred guy I have reason to believe his friends at Fox and brothers big media print agency in Denver perhaps coax this flamboyant article.

As a poor guy I've tried to work the negativity of this article over these months.
Please review the attach excerpts of my response to this fake news as of most recently:

But recently syndicated websites such as Wiki Delete have recently added this document building on it. I mean?!? its Crazy.Here is a days old photo.

Dear Mr. Brown,

On April 19Th, 2017 your news paper publish a scalding article involving our client [Michael Foster \[Artist\]](#) Ref photo article screenshot attach.

In it you describe him as age "53" and what appears to be a jaded photo of our client and in some syndicated publications the story was replicated with further annihilations bearing at times our clients age to be even '63'. Our client is in his early 40's. Though appreciated, the publicity of the article of on average is slightly overrated. The flamboyancy of which you would assume is undeserving toward any of our clients who regularly face the public as a benefit to our company and in the ways they'll make themselves brand-worthy.

Noticeable lack of fact finding is related throughout the articles readability as our client noted: your editorial office hadn't extended the courtesy of contacting him. neither was any attempt made to us on behalf of our client.

Overtime the article's rhetoric was constantly republished. Each syndicated replicate of the published article have become a cornerstone for our promotional efforts. [Ironically] Granted! Though defunct, unseamed, it may have become a bit drained out.

I am not accusing your expertise in in any sphere of written or your recently published articles. I am just expressing my honest opinion as I have managed many, many artist who have indeed a nature of sometimes questionable past.

This client isn't one of them.

This article however is in my opinion expresses a childish read. I've heard from experts in the field of court reporting that there could have been a better [humorous] pick for outrageous court reporting out of a number of approximately 200 cases filed that day.

But, thanks again for the promotions.

Would you be [do] so kindly as to see to it that the questionable edits be made? It sure would mean a favorable best Christmas holiday season's present for us and to our client Michael Foster.

I have attach a photo of our client and also the photo we've sort to have your editorial team correct.
